

LUCAS COUNTY, OHIO BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS	NUMBER: 27	PAGE: 1 OF 1
TITLE: LUCAS COUNTY ACTING AS SUBGRANTEE FOR ELECTED OFFICIALS, DEPARTMENTS, AND AGENCIES OF LUCAS COUNTY	PERSONNEL ADMINISTRATIVE X	RESOLUTION NO: 01-959
EFFECTIVE DATE: June 28, 2001	TYPE: POLICY X PROCEDURE	SUPERSEDES: POLICY PROCEDURE

The Board of Lucas County Commissioners (ALucas County≡) will act as Grantee or Subgrantee for grants only if the following conditions are acknowledged and adhered to by the department/agency head/elected official (ASubrecipient≡).

CONDITIONS

- 1) Subrecipient shall administer the program and/or project for Lucas County and fulfill all programmatic and administrative requirements of federal, state, and local governments as specified in grant award and grant application documents or as amended. Copies of the grant awards, grant conditions, and special grant conditions are attached hereto, and hereby incorporated herein as part of this policy.
- 2) The Board of County Commissioners shall provide to the Subrecipient all grant funds as specified in the grant award.
- 3) Employment of any and all staff hired through grant funds shall be terminated at the end of the grant award period or subsequent grant renewal period. This does not preclude Subrecipient from retaining the employee in an existing vacancy that is approved under the general fund.
- 4) Where applicable, Subrecipient must include in the grant application Lucas County=s indirect costs where allowable.

- 5) No general fund money will be allocated to continue the grant program or to retain the grant staff supported upon the termination of the grant. If the Subrecipient wishes to continue the program using general fund money, the Subrecipient must follow procedures set by the Office of Management and Budget as the first step toward obtaining approval by the Board of County Commissioners.
